You can customise your kitchen like a tailor-made suit with the Kyra kitchen system. Whatever your lifestyle, your tastes, your expectations and the type of space available for your kitchen, the Kyra model has the solution you are looking for. With Kyra, you can draw inspiration from the industrial style and blend it into your home - a perfect contrast between modern flavour and vintage charm creates a strong look. Kyra also offers a wide range of combinations; from natural, elegant and tactile wood finishes, to stunning and contemporary solid colours, giving you the freedom to create your own look. The Kyra Model forms part of Creo Kitchens Collection which are 100 per cent made in Italy, with love.
